

Functional moving average processes

Denis BOSQ

LSTA, Université Pierre et Marie Curie,

175, rue du Chevaleret, 75013 Paris

e-mail: bosq@ccr.jussieu.fr

Various continuous time processes can be represented as discrete time moving average processes in a functional space. In this talk we define and study some properties of these models. We also present some asymptotic results concerning parameter estimation for this scheme of observations.