

On some lower bounds in testing of hypotheses and information theory

Marat V. Burnashev, Institute of the Problems of Information Transmission, Moscow

Abstract

Some known (under different names) lower bounds will be described.
A new lower bound for testing of large number of hypotheses will be presented. That new bound generalizes some earlier known lower bounds.