

Convergence of the most probable path in partially observed systems

Pavel Chigansky, The Hebrew University, Jerusalem

Abstract

I will revisit the maximum posterior probability estimation problem in partially observed systems and will discuss the convergence properties of the most probable trajectory (joint work with Y.Ritov).